

Shelly Hossain BA PGDIP MBA NTL

Shelly is an Organisational Development consultant and educator. She has spent over twenty years supporting organisations in leadership and change work. She is a part time academic and provides education and development of leaders and organisation development practitioners.

Shelly is an Associate with leading development specialists who operate across the globe: Berkshire Consultancy, Roffey Park Management Institute and the MiL Institute in Sweden. Her work includes running Masters level programmes, coaching senior leaders and providing consultancy interventions.

Shelly is active in bringing an OD mind set to organisations and raising the value of OD work in the UK. She is one of the few NTL members based in the UK (founding body of OD)

Shelly works with the Strategic /Top Teams in organisations focusing on individual, team and organisation wide development, supporting and guiding top teams on change projects and working with organisations on broader issues such as Creating a World Class organisation and International Leadership. She brings a strong academic grounding and experienced base to her work. All her work has a strong thread of Diversity and Inclusion.

Current Projects:

- Shelly is a Co Director of the prestigious NTL OD Certificate programme in the UK. This is a six module programme for individuals who have organisational experience and want to deepen their OD practice and grounding.
- Set advisor on the MSc in People and Organisation Development programme for Roffey Park. This is a two year masters programme based on a self managed learning principles using learning sets as a core component of the programme. As a set advisor Shelly acts as the main contact point for participants over the two years
- Much of her work focuses on Diversity and Inclusion. She is currently the design lead for the largest positive action programme in the UK Civil Service. She has won the gold diversity award for her work with the Department of Transport. She and her team won the National Training Journal gold leadership and bronze award (2014) for the best leadership programme and best public sector programme for diversity work in the Ministry of Justice.
- Shelly is a founding member of ODN Europe and currently holds the leadership position of Co Chair and leads the professional practice portfolio.
- Shelly is experienced in a variety of action learning methodologies from around the globe (Action Learning, Self Managed Learning, Action Reflection Learning, Business Action Learning) and provides master classes to experienced set advisors including advanced facilitation skills.
- She has designed and delivered numerous programmes for international organisation to support collaborative working and global leadership practice.